

David Benkendorf

Attorney (retired)

David practiced law in Illinois for thirty years before retiring and moving to Berlin in 2011 with his wife, Dr. Sandra Benckendorf, who practices medicine with Coos County Family Health Services. He served on numerous boards in Illinois, including the Tazewell County Board, Tri-County Regional Planning Commission, and Pastoral Counseling Service. David is an adjunct professor and criminal justice program coordinator at nearby White Mountains Community College. He joined the Board of Directors at St. Kieran's in 2015. He and his wife have three children. David enjoys reading, writing, and martial arts.
