

Fr. Kyle Stanton

Pastor, Good Shepherd Parish/Holy Family Parish

Originally from Salem New Hampshire, Father Kyle has lived in the City of Berlin since July of 2011. He studied at Nashua Community College, Associates Degree in Business Administration, Franciscan University of Steubenville Ohio, Bachelor of Arts in Theology with a Minor in Philosophy, and at St. John Seminary of Brighton MA, Masters in Divinity. Having then been ordained a Priest for the Diocese of Manchester, he was assigned as the Assistant Pastor of Good Shepherd Parish, Berlin and Holy Family Parish, Gorham. On January 22, 2014, he was named the Pastor of those parishes and continues to serve in this capacity today. In addition, he has served as a Stakeholder in the Facing Heroin action team for Berlin and surrounding region, serves on the Community Management Team for Berlin Public Schools Project Aware, is the chaplain for the local Knights of Columbus Council 506 and oversees the Mother Marie Rivier Food Pantry in Berlin. In 2016 he was named a recipient of the Union Leaders 40 Under Forty award which honors young achievers and leadership. Having shown his public support for the Center for the Arts, he was invited to serve on the Board of Directors in 2015.
