

Judy Rheaume
Office Coordinator (retired)

Judy is a native of Berlin and one of the original incorporators of St. Kieran Community Center for the Arts in 2000, where she served as Vice-Chairperson until 2015. She worked at Brown Company, after one year at UNH, got married, raised a daughter, and began working for the Church. She worked as the Assistant. Coordinator of Religious Education, then as Coordinator of the Christian Life Center for 19 years and as receptionist for Good Shepherd Parish until her retirement. She received a Certificate in Christian Ministry from the Ministry Institute at Notre Dame College. While working at the Christian Life Center, she also worked for a Federal Grant Program, CARE NH, as Cultural Competence Coordinator/Berlin Regional Collaborative for 6 years. She volunteered as the Director of the Ecumenical Food Pantry for 9 years. Judy has maintained her service as a board member of St. Kieran Community Center for the Arts and is enjoying retirement.