

Sue Young

Administrator of Programs, NH Department of Corrections

Twelve years ago (2004), Sue Young was asked to help create the first St. Patrick's Day Fundraiser for St. Kieran's Community Center for the Arts. The fundraiser was a tremendous success and slowly but surely, after continuous involvement with numerous fundraising efforts, she became a board member.

She has a love of the arts and creative processes. Sue has an extensive background in Therapeutic Recreation and a Master's Degree in Rehabilitation Counseling; before returning to the city of her birth, Sue worked in a rehabilitation hospital in Massachusetts. She is positive, energetic and strives to use her time and talents to make a difference every day.
